Luke 23:44–46 50. 52–53

Father, into your hands I commend my spirit.

✠ A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke.

It was about the sixth hour and with the sun eclipsed,
a darkness came over the whole land until the ninth hour.
The veil of the temple was torn right down the middle,
and when Jesus had cried out in a loud voice,
he said, ‘Father into your hands I commit my spirit’.
With these words he breathed his last.

Then a member of the council arrived,
an upright and virtuous man named Joseph.
This man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus.

He then took it down, wrapped it in a shroud
and put him in a tomb which was hewn in stone in which no one had yet been laid.

The Gospel of the Lord.
